(Moore v. Charles T. Wills, Inc. , 250 N.Y. 426.) We also note that in other actions arising out of the same events, defendant Barney's motions for summary judgment have been granted and the complaints in those actions were dismissed as against it. Order entered October 21, 1969 unanimously reversed, on the law, without costs and without disbursements, and defendant-appellant's motion for summary judgment dismissing the complaint granted, without prejudice to an application by the plaintiffs at Special Term, if so advised, for leave to serve an amended pleading based upon a cause of ...
