It's been a long, long time since I posted any free hand embroidery patterns on Needle 'n Thread! But the other day I came across this sweet little single flower in an old embroidery journal that was crumbling in my hands as I opened it, and I salvaged the pattern by tracing it. Here's a free hand embroidery pattern for you, doodled up over the weekend. It is a slightly altered version of a design from an old book – resource below! How do you ladies ever find the time to do your projects. Between reading emails, deciding on what fabrics to use, which embroidery designs to use on what and keeping up with blogs and facebook, not to mention house work, I never seem to have enough time to finish half of the projects I have on the go.
