

Download Worship Dancing With Instruments Of Praise

Most denominations play instrumental music in worship. This includes playing organs, pianos, harps, and even whole bands or orchestras. Does the gospel of Jesus teach us to praise God with instruments of music, or should we simply sing (vocal or a cappella music)? An encouraging, Bible-based article by Rev. Dale A. Robbins, that explains the purpose and effect of Christian worship and praise. Dancing is another form of worship. I've known about worshiping through dance for only a few years. I've seen some powerful and breathtaking performances, and I think it's beautiful to see someone dancing to the Lord. Questions are being raised today about the legitimacy of applause (clapping), uplifted hands, drumming, and dancing in Seventh-day Adventist worship services., Worship Dancing With Instruments Of Praise.
